Tech-Savvy Advocacy: Harnessing Technology in Litigation

Technology plays a pivotal role in shaping the way attorneys litigate and practice law. This program is designed to inform legal professionals on the latest technology trends for litigators. The program will begin with a civil law update, discussing the latest cases from the South Carolina Supreme Court affecting civil practice. This will be followed by a presentation on artificial intelligence and its impact on the practice of law, specifically focusing on practical tips on how programs like AI programs like ChatGPT can be used by litigators in their practice. Finally, there will be a presentation on essential technology skills for litigators. Through examples and practical demonstrations, participants will gain a better understanding of various technological tools and strategies that can streamline legal processes, enhance efficiency, and bolster their advocacy in courtrooms and beyond.
